

Experienced

The funds leverage the deep industry domain knowledge, market intelligence, reputational capital, administrative resources and healthcare investment experience of Ziegler and Link•age who have a combined 50+ years experience in healthcare.

Focused

The US Census predicts there will be 72M people over 65 in the US by 2030.* The aging population of the US presents an attractive investment opportunity, given the size, growth and complexity of needs of this population within a continually evolving healthcare system.

Strategic

Limited partner investors represent organizations across the healthcare, senior living, and aging services landscape that have a significant interest in finding innovative solutions to improve the independence, quality and cost of care, and overall lives of the aging population.
