ZIEGLER MOVING ITS DOWNTOWN CHICAGO HEADQUARTERS TO ONE NORTH WACKER IN AUGUST 2018

CHICAGO, IL - DECEMBER 13, 2017 - Ziegler, a specialty investment bank, is pleased to announce that it will move its Chicago headquarters to 32,000-square-feet of space in the One North Wacker building in August 2018. In addition to the open architecture and prestigious presence, Ziegler will have an 1,800-square-foot, private roof deck only accessible through its offices. The move to this state-of-the-art high rise will accommodate Ziegler's firm growth and increasing market share, while enabling associates to continue to serve clients efficiently.

Featuring modern architecture of stainless steel and glass, One North Wacker will offer more office and meeting space, a fitness center, common lounges and work areas, as well as dining and event spaces.

"This is an exciting time for Ziegler. Our move to the full 20th floor of One North Wacker not only supports our growing firm, but it will also provide our associates with a new, dynamic work environment. We are looking forward to the move and all of the improvements it will bring," said Tom Paprocki, CEO of Ziegler.

"Through the updated, high-quality amenities and additional spaces, One North Wacker takes full advantage of the 51 stories it occupies. It creates a vibrant and sophisticated atmosphere in the heart of downtown Chicago that both our associates and clients will enjoy," said Dan Hermann, Senior Managing Director and Head of Investment Banking at Ziegler.

"Ziegler is emblematic of the companies that are choosing One North Wacker as their Chicago 'home,'" said Beau Rawi, regional vice president, leasing, Irvine Company Office Properties. "With the foresight that is the hallmark of this market leader, Ziegler recognizes that first-class modern offices and amenities are essential to accelerating success and attracting talent. We are excited to welcome Ziegler to our workplace community.”
