ZIEGLER CLOSES $50 MILLION SERIES 2018 BONDS FOR OHIO DOMINICAN UNIVERSITY

CHICAGO, IL – FEBRUARY 21, 2019 – Ziegler, a specialty investment bank, is pleased to announce the successful closing of the $49,980,000 Series 2018 financing for Ohio Dominican University. The Series 2018 tax-exempt bonds were non-rated, and were issued through the Columbus-Franklin County Finance Authority. Proceeds from the Series 2018 Bonds will be used primarily to refund several existing bank loans and fund various campus projects.

Ohio Dominican University is a Catholic liberal arts university, founded in the Catholic and Dominican traditions in 1911. The University offers 40 undergraduate majors and nine graduate degrees, with enrollment of over 1,700 students. The campus is situated on 75 acres in Columbus, Ohio and is central Ohio's Catholic University.

“This was an exciting financing to work on for the University,” commented Brian Riordan, Managing Director of Ziegler's Higher Education Finance Practice. “The refinance marks a critical step in helping Ohio Dominican implement its strategic plan. The University is well positioned for future success, with strong support from University leadership. We were honored to partner with Ohio Dominican on this very important refinancing.”

Dr. Robert Gervasi, President of Ohio Dominican University added, “We cannot say enough positive things about the professionalism and expertise with which Brian Riordan and the Ziegler team led our refinancing effort. It is safe to say Ziegler pushed us to broaden our mindset about how to properly tell the Ohio Dominican story. They provided sound advice throughout the marketing process and achieved outstanding results which will help us to fulfill our mission, while embracing both tradition and innovation here at Ohio Dominican University.”
